Sir,

I am directed to advise the despatch to your address, through Messrs Thacker Spink & Co., Calcutta, of a specimen copy of the first number of the Indian Journal of Medical Research, published under the auspices of the Indian Research Fund Association.

The scope and objects of the journal are set forth in the Editorial Note in the copy of the journal sent to you, and I shall be greatly obliged if you will be so good as to bring the journal to the notice of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, with the assurance that any assistance His Highness can see his way to extend to support the journal by subscribing for copies for circulation among medical officers and subordinates in His Highness' employ, will be greatly appreciated, and will further the cause of Medical Research in India.

3. My Board will be very pleased to consider any contributions that medical officers in your State may wish to send for publication in the journal.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

F. Norman White
